

Wine List

White

Tierra Alta Sauvignon Blanc, Chile

Fresh and funky Sauvignon sourced from cool vineyards close to the Pacific. A vibrant, but easy mix of ripe citrus and kiwi, with a limey twist on the finish.

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £22

Conviviale Pinot Grigio, Italy

Gently aromatic Pinot with a soft, supple mix of white peach and lemon fruit, ending with a perky lift and a hint of spice.

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £22

False Bay Chardonnay, South Africa

Proper Chardonnay this, with organically farmed fruit fermented with wild yeast. A subtle lick of oak adds a classy twist to lush, tropical fruit.

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £24.50

Marius Vermentino, Pays D'Oc

Vermentino is catching many an eye/tongue these days. Impressive weight, with tangy grapefruit and pineapple fruit and a mouth filling texture.

Bottle £25

V Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand

A cracking new find, laden with passion fruit and gooseberry, with a fine, balanced finish. Dangerously drinkable!

175ml £7.50 250ml £10 Bottle £27

Clea Verdejo, Spain

A decent option for Sauvignon lovers, delivering a crisp mix of grassy, citrus fruit with a complex herbal, mineral finish.

Bottle £28

La Battistina Gavi, Italy

A popular, versatile white, with a ripe, rounded palate that switches from citrus to tropical, then back again!

Bottle £30

Ecker Gruner Veltliner, Austria

Lewis's favourite. An Austrian native variety, Gruner Veltliner (pron. felt-leaner), grown on the banks of the Danube. Exotic, floral and lively with a crack of white pepper on the finish.

Bottle £30

Alexandre Petit Chablis

A beautiful, understated white from a top family grower. Fine lemon and white peach fruit, with a sleek, stony finish.

Bottle £35

Rosé

Mirabello Pinot Grigio Rose, Italy

A delicately fruited red with a creamy mid-palate, and a crisp, dry finish.

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £23

Burlesque WhiteZinfandel, California

A splash of Californian sunshine for what I suspect is another wet Cheshire day!

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £23

Whispering Angel, Côtes de Provence

One of our favourites, enjoyable from lunch to night!

Bottle £35

Ultimate Provence Rose

Why not- treat yourself! Worth it for the bottle alone! A thing of beauty which you'll want to take home with you. The content doesn't disappoint either!

Bottle £45

-WINE AND DINE-

Wine List

Red

Tierra Alta Merlot, Chile

Classic Chilean Merlot. A juicy, plush, plummy red that slips down all too easily. A good, versatile option.

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £22

Sierra de Enmedio Monastrell, Spain

Old vine Monastrell (aka Mourvedre) from Valencia, that delivers an impressive dollop of plush, summer berry fruit with a catchy chocolate note.

175ml £6 250ml £8 Bottle £23

Marius Syrah Grenache, Pays D'Oc

Old friends Syrah & Grenache partying like they've just come out of lockdown! Fragrant, soft, generously fruited red with a spicy backdrop.

Bottle £25

Los Olivos Malbec, Argentina

Fun, crunchy Malbec from a top family domain, with blueberry and bramble fruit and a touch of mocha.

175ml £7.50 250ml £10 Bottle £27

Baglio Gibellina U. Passimienta, Italy

A blend of Nero d'Avola and Frappato from sun-drenched vineyards in Sicily. A warm, smooth, satisfying red, with a delicious mix of spiced black cherry and plum fruit.

175ml £7.50 250ml £11 Bottle £30

Pete's Pure Pinot Noir, Australia

A sultry Pinot, with silky cherry fruit backed by complex notes of toast, vanilla and herbs.

Bottle £30

Clea Ribeira del Duero

Made with the main Rioja grape, Tempranillo, but from the source of Spain's greatest reds, Ribeira del Duero. Fresher, a bit firmer, but with high quality fruit and balance.

Bottle £30

Cline Cellars Ancient Vines Zinfandel, California

Head Chef Scott's favourite- well worth a try if we've got any left! Made with fruit from +100 year old vines, a captivating mouthful of red and blue fruit, sweet oak and spice.

Bottle £35

Champagne & Prosecco

Lunetta Prosecco, Italy

125ml £7.50 Bottle £27

Lunetta Rose Prosecco, Italy

125ml £7.50 Bottle £27

Tattinger Champagne, France

Bottle £60

Laurent Perrier Rosé Champagne

Bottle £85

*125ml measures available on request*

